

3. I certify that the matters cannot be adequately handled, and the City's interest adequately protected, by other counsel for the party in the action or by other attorneys in the City Attorney's office, certify compliance with this rule and has nevertheless been unable to resolve the conflicts; and certify in the notice a proposed resolution by list of such cases in the order of priority specified by this rule.

4. Proposed Resolution: Even though the federal case was set first because that Court has presently five criminal cases set for trial on this date, which take precedence over civil trials, and at least one other civil trial, that the federal trial be rescheduled for February 20, 2012, or thereafter, with the state case remaining for trial on February 13, 2012.

Further, state trials, if they cannot be tried during the week set, are set aside to a later trial docket.

5. The factual disputes in both cases are not complex. Neither case should take more than three days (total) to try.

6. A similar notice will be filed (with a copy to be hand-delivered to Judge Parrish) in the Oklahoma County District Court.
